Har ki dun- Ruinsara tal

Itinerary

Day 1: Drive from Rishikesh to Sankri (7-8 hrs) and stay at a hotel/homestay: Leave from Dehradun early in the morning as it is a long drive to Sankri. Purola is the last town with an ATM. Sankri is a town which is the base village to many treks like Kedarkantha, Har ki Dun, Rupin Pass, Phulara Ridge and more. The drive post Purola takes you past pine forests, small villages, mustard fields and along the Tons river.

Day 2: Drive from Sankri to Taluka (12kms; 1hr drive). Hike from Taluka to Ghangaad (10kms - 5-6 hrs) and stay at a homestay: Drive from Sankri takes you through dense forests till you reach Taluka, the village with a road connection. Start the hike from Taluka after a small tea break. You hike along the Supin river till you reach Ghangaar. Ghangaar is a small village which offers beautiful views of the surrounding valley. You hike through dense maple and pine forests.

Itinerary

Day 3: Hike from Ghangaad to Kalkatiyadhar (4 kms - 4 hrs). Overnight stay in tents: KKD is a very huge meadow which is actually the grazing meadow of the local cattle and sheep. Today's hike is a gradual ascent passing through a suspension bridge at Seema, Rajma fields, tiny streams and meadows. The last village in the valley called Osla can be seen enroute. KKD campsite offers the first views of the Har ki Dun valley.

Day 4: Hike from Kalkatiyadhar to the Har Ki Dun Valley, spend some good time in the Valley of Shiva and camp at Boslo. (10kms - 7-8 hrs): Leave early to the Har ki Dun valley. Today's trail is a mixture of ascents, descents and flat walks. Takes you through Rhododendron, Oak, Birch Forests and colorful wildflowers. If lucky enough one can spot a Himalayan Monal on this trail. The valley of Shiva offers mighty views of Swargarohini, Black Peak, Har ki Dun peak.

Itinerary

Day 5: Hike from Boslo to Untigad (9kms - 6-7 hrs). Overnight stay in tents: It is slightly a long day. You pass through small wooden bridges, beautiful purple Rhododendrons, Birch trees. It is a very dreamy walk through the forests till you reach Untigad. The campsite is right next to a waterfall. The evening views are to die for here.

Day 6: Hike from Untigad to Ruinsara Tal (Glacial Lake) and camp at Devusu Thatch (7-8 hrs): The lake is just 1.5 kms from Untigad and the entire route is covered with Birch Trees. It looks like someone has planted acres and acres of Birch trees. The ridge above the lake offers amazing views. The trail to Bali pass is also seen from the ridge. Devsu Thatch is a meadow parallel to KKD campsite and is right in the middle of pine forest.
