About the Trek: The Khopra Ridge Trek is one of Nepal's finest off-the-beaten-path routes in the Annapurna Conservation Area. Winding through Gurung and Magar villages, rhododendron forests, and high alpine ridgelines, it culminates at the sacred Khayar Lake (4,600 m) with panoramic views of Dhaulagiri (8,167 m), Annapurna I (8,091 m), Machhapuchhre (6,993 m) and 20+ peaks. Less crowded than ABC or Poon Hill — a true off-beat Himalayan experience.
