About this trek: Trekking the Pin Parvati Pass is no ordinary feat. Acknowledged as one of the most challenging and exhilarating treks, it tests both physical stamina and mental tenacity. This trans-Himalayan journey forges a path between two distinct landscapes: the verdant expanse of the Kullu Valley and the stark, barren beauty of Spiti Valley in Himachal Pradesh.

The Pin Parvati Pass is a feast for the senses. It unfolds from the lush meadows of the Parvati Valley to the serene Buddhist villages nestled in Himachal's cradle. Opting for this trek during the summer provides a refreshing escape from the intense heat, replacing it with cool mountain air and an irresistible call to adventure. This journey is sure to captivate any trekking enthusiast, leaving them with an unforgettable experience and a sense of profound accomplishment.

Outline Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival at Solang from Manali (13 km) | Altitude: 2500 meters

Our adventure begins as we arrive in Manali and make our way to the tranquil Solang Valley. We settle into a local hotel and after a rejuvenating lunch, we engage in an acclimatization walk. Over evening tea, we discuss the exciting expedition ahead, before retiring for a peaceful night's rest.

Day 2

Solang to Kaza (140 km) | Altitude: 3800 meters

We bid farewell to Solang post-breakfast, setting our sights on Kaza. On reaching Kaza in time for lunch, we take a brief respite, followed by acclimatization walks to adjust to the altitude.

Day 3

Kaza to Mudh, Drive (50 km), then Trek to Tia campsite (10 km) | Altitude: 3900 meters

We depart from Mudh after breakfast, reaching the starting point of our trek. Our journey then takes us towards the Tia campsite, surrounded by nature's splendor.

Day 4

Tia campsite to Baidu Taj (7 km) | Altitude: 4140 meters

Our journey from Tia to the Baidu campsite offers a thrilling altitude gain of 250 to 300 meters, intensifying our Himalayan adventure.

Day 5

Baidu Taj to Pin Pass to Parvati Base Camp (5 km) | Altitude: 5300 meters

Today, we advance towards the Parvati base camp, traversing the Pin Pass and revealing an entirely new facet of the region.

Day 6

Trek to Mantalai Campsite (3 km) | Altitude: 3930 meters

Our trek leads us to the picturesque Mantalai, one of the most captivating campsites of our journey, where we set up camp for the night.

Day 7

Mantalai to Thakur Kuan (16 km) | Altitude: 3320 meters

Today's trek is a lengthier one, but the constant descent and breathtaking vistas make it an equally rewarding experience.

Day 8

Thakur Kuan to Kheerganga (18 km) | Altitude: 2950 meters

As we approach the end of our trek, we cross the tricky Bheem Pul, navigating to the opposite side of the Pin River, adding a dash of thrill to our journey.

Day 9

Kheerganga to Barshaini (13 km) | Altitude: 2300 meters.

Drive back to Manali (4 hrs drive)

Our trek concludes leisurely as we reach Barshaini. From here, we board a cab back to Manali, reflecting on the unforgettable experiences of our journey.
